04/21/2021	42	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Rebecca R. Pallmeyer: Plaintiff Huntley has been instructed repeatedly that she should cease sending multiple messages and exhibits to the court. Most recently her submissions have included a copy of her family's census filing and her mother's obituary. These documents have no imaginable relevance to any valid complaint Ms. Huntley might have with her former employer. The court reminds her that she has not yet submitted a short and plain statement of her claim for relief, nor has she submitted an approved petition for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. Her continued submission of dozens of irrelevant documents may result in sanctions, including dismissal of this case and/or a filing restriction. Notice mailed by judge's staff (ntf,) (Entered: 04/21/2021)
04/21/2021	43	ORDER. Plaintiff's application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis 14 is denied as incomplete. Her motion for a settlement conference 15 is denied as premature, as she has not yet filed a complaint that states a claim for relief. Plaintiff's amended complaint 13 is stricken without prejudice. Plaintiff is again reminded that she must submit an amended complaint setting forth a plain statement of her claim for relief in short, numbered paragraphs. Her failure to do so within 21 days will result in dismissal. She is cautioned against submission of voluminous exhibits that reveal personal information and do not appear to have any relation to a claim against her former employer.[For further details see order.] Signed by the Honorable Rebecca R. 04/29/2021	84	Pro Se Litigant Employment Discrimination by Mellody Estella Maria Huntley Plaintiff (Huntley, Mellody) (Entered: 04/29/2021)

04/30/2021	85	ORDER. This case is dismissed without prejudice. Ms. Huntley has now filed a completed in forma pauperis application; that application 61 is granted. Plaintiff has leave to seek reinstatement within 30 days, but before doing so, is encouraged to confer with the court's Pro Se Help Desk. Any motion for reinstatement must be accompanied by a third amended complaint that complies with directions set forth in this order. Ms. Huntley is directed to cease making any other filings. Civil case terminated. [For further details see order.] Signed by the Honorable Rebecca R. Pallmeyer on 4/30/2021. Notice mailed by judge's staff (ntf,) (Entered: 04/30/2021)

05/20/2021	89	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Rebecca R. Pallmeyer: Melody Estella Maria Huntley asks the court to reinstate her case. Ms. Huntley contends she has "established Burden of Proof" and has declined to follow the court's direction that she confer with the Pro Se Help Desk. As best the court can understand her situation, Ms. Huntley, who was once employed by the Social Security Administration, believes her retirement benefit has been miscalculated. That claim must be presented to the Merit Systems Protection Board, not this court. Indeed, it appears that Ms. Huntley has sought relief from the MSPB; she is free to pursue any appeals that may be available to her. Ms. Huntley also contends that she was wrongfully terminated in 2019. A claim arising from that termination would likely be untimely. In any event, apart from alleging that it was wrongful, Ms. Huntley has not explained what was unlawful about her termination nor what might support her vague claims of employment discrimination. Ms. Huntley's motion for reinstatement 88 is denied. The Clerk is directed to enter judgment. This ruling is final and appealable. Notice mailed by judge's staff (ntf,) (Entered: 05/20/2021)

11/22/2021	155	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Rebecca R. Pallmeyer: On November 15, 2021, Judge John M. Younge of the U. S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania entered an order transferring a case pending before him to this court. Plaintiff Mellody Estella Maria Williams Huntley has filed a copy of that order in the docket for this case 146 . The court expects the Clerk in Pennsylvania to take appropriate steps to transfer Ms. Huntley's case to this court. Once that has taken place, the Clerk for this court will assign Ms. Huntley's case randomly to a judge of this court. Ms. Huntley is advised that if the case being transferred from Pennsylvania raises the same claims that were or could have been raised in the case she filed before this court, those claims may be barred by the doctrine of res judicata, or claims preclusion. (rbf,) (Entered: 11/22/2021)

11/22/2021	156	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Rebecca R. Pallmeyer: The court dismissed this case in April 2021, and the Court of Appeals has affirmed the dismissal. The court takes notice that the District Court in Pennsylvania has ordered that case transferred to this court. Ms. Huntley is advised that the transferred case will be assigned a new case number. She is also warned that if the transferred case raises the same claims or issues that were presented in the case this court has already decided, the transferred case will be dismissed.
