08/01/2024	8	 5.7 KB	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Edmond E. Chang: (1.) In light of financial indigency, the motion to proceed is required for pro se pleadings, there is not enough factual content to understand the claim. In the section set aside APPEAL," presumably a decision of the Illinois Department of Employment Security. R. 1 at 5-6. There are attachments to docket entries are to the CM/ECF page numbers, not to any numbers on the bottom of pages.) And federal citations (which apply here). Some of the attachments refer to the Merit Systems Protection Board, R. 1-1 at 3-7 (MSPB decision of the federal district court. An exception is a case based on unlawful discrimination, but again the Court cannot discern on its own, that is, it cannot incorporate the previously filed complaint. The Plaintiff must explain the facts that underlie the claim. If required, the case will not be called), a tracking status hearing is set for 08/30/2024 at 8:30 a.m. Emailed notice (mvs)

Perry: The first complaint in this case was filed 7/17/2024 1 and subs remains unable to discern any nonfrivolous and legally viable claim. The amended complaint and its attachment i also includes what appears to be the table of contents for "Title 20 Employees' Benefits" and notes regarding milita Retirement System and a federal pension. Construing these allegations liberally, the Court is left with the impressio court cases. As for the former, Plaintiff brings suit against defendants not responsible for federal pensions, includi of or overrule a state court case. The more than 90 filings Plaintiff has made since filing the amended complaint pr reasons, and so the Court now dismisses Plaintiff's complaint with prejudice. Civil case terminated. Mailed notice.
